

Sign In / Register

Kansas City Business Journal - August 19, 2010
/kansascity/stories/2010/08/16/daily33.html

KANSAS CITY BUSINESS JOURNAL

Thursday, August 19, 2010, 1:12pm CDT

Nine Kansas City-area companies present at Great Plains Capital Conference

Kansas City Business Journal

The Kansas City area will be well-represented next month at the Great Plains Capital Conference in Wichita.

Nine of the 14 companies selected to present at the Sept. 16 conference hail from the area. The selections were announced late Wednesday.

The seventh-annual conference, held in conjunction with the 2010 Kansas Day of Innovation, will give early-stage companies a chance to attract angel and early-stage venture capital financing.

The local companies scheduled to present are: Overland Park-based AirMass LLC, which makes property management software; Lenexa-based Emerge Medical Solutions LLC, a medical software developer; Shawnee-based KC BioMedix Inc., which makes feeding devices for infants; Kansas City-based Mobile Symmetry LLC, which is developing a mobile phone directory; OsteoGeneX Inc. of Kansas City, Kan., which is advancing an osteoporosis treatment; Lenexa-based SocialVolt Inc., a social media monitoring service; Overland Park-based Soleran Inc., which develops customer-relationship management software; Overland Park-based Spiral16 LLC, a social media monitoring service; and Overland Park-based WorkSpace Communications LLC, which provides unified communications and call center management services.

Two other companies are from Wichita, two are from Lawrence, and one is from Junction City.

The event will be at the Wichita Marriott.

Learn more about these companies:

- Filling the Pipeline: Entrepreneurs discuss fellowships
- Local reinvestment: Archer Technologies founders put money in Kansas City tech firms

- Kansas Bioscience Authority approves $2.13M in financing
- Spiral16 is ready to spark push to market
- Rewiring for the future: CXO adapts to continue success in call center, communications consulting

davidtwiddy@bizjournals.com | 816-777-2204 | Twitter: @dtwiddy71

All contents of this site © American City Business Journals Inc. All rights reserved.